

"Alone, across"

Sixty days alone at sea in a 14 foot homebuilt boat. A journey above and below the surface where fear and joy rises from underneath and crowds the consciousness. Will it be the same person casting off on one side of the ocean who makes it to the other side, many horizons away...?

